

DELUSION SHORT FILM:

Logline:

An immigrant caregiver moves in with her newly American husband, upon meeting his mother she starts questioning everything she knows about him and herself.

Genre: Psychological Drama

Writer: Isabella Medina Sarria

MEREDITH COSTAS:

Judith Dench (Notes on a Scandal) Toni Collette (I'm thinking of ending things)

Age: 75

Occupation: Retired Teacher

Nationality: American

Disease: Alzheimer

Character Traits: sassy, judgmental, resentful, emotionally expressive.

ARC: Meredith Costas will have to reveal the truth about her son, and she will have to fight her disease to make Astrid believe her.

Character Goals: Leading Astrid to find the truth, ultimately to separate her son from her.

Description: A retired teacher, who was born in Long Island New York, and has been dealing with Alzheimer in early stages. Her husband died a year ago. She is persuasive, sassy, judgmental, resentful, and very emotionally expressive. Leading Astrid to find the truth of her son's past to ultimately separate her from Gabriel her son.

→ (Actor Playing her son, Gabriel Costas)